

November 8, 2004

The Day, New London, Connecticut

East Lyme — The Friends of Oswegatchie Hills Nature Preserve Inc. has elected its board of directors for 2004-05.

Officers elected were: Marvin Schutt, president; Michael Dunn, vice president; Judith Layden, treasurer; and Karen Kari, secretary. Other directors elected were: Robert Garofalo, Gregg Hutchins, Pat Sher, Carl Stamm and Paul Whitehouse.

The nonprofit organization seeks to raise public awareness and money for the purchase of the remaining privately owned, undeveloped land in Oswegatchie Hills. For more information, visit the Web site www.oswhills.com